

This device complies with part 15 of the FCC rules.

Operation is subject to the following two conditions:

- 1 This device may not cause harmful interference, and
- 2 this device must accept any interference received, including interference that may cause undesired operation.